Richmond, Va., July 2, 1910.

Dear Sirs,-Last September I bought from you a 1910 Chalmers "30," and it has given such excellent service that I feel that I would like for you to know about it. We used it all last winter in our business, covering six thousand miles on the streets and on the roughest country roads, in all kinds of weather, my repair bill being about fifty cents. It is still running as nicely as it did the day it was delivered to me.

You are indeed fortunate in being able to represent such a high-class article, and I always take pleasure in recommending the Chalmers to my friends who are in the market R. B. ALLPORT. Very truly yours,

> The story of Chalmers cars is one of unparalleled success. When every single owner of a Chalmers car is absolutely satisfied, as is the case in Richmond, that car must be a good one. Chaimers cars ARE good cars, as you will know when you have examined our 1911 Chaimers "30" demonstrator.

Round Trip

Ocean View,

Both teams suffered, and his off decisions hardly affected either score.

The locals tied the score up in the fifth with hard hitting, but the Coits went back, and by hard work soon had the game locked up, for Revelle tightened up, and the Shoemakers could not find him.

An evidence of this was in the eighth, when errors by Bunting and Revelle put Artle Smith on second, with no one out, and then Revelle settled down and fanned Levy, Dick Smith and Morrison in turn.

The feature was easily Howedell's hitting and Titman's throw in the ninth to third to cut him off in an effort to string a double into a three-bagger. Score:
